Good Morning, Good Morning, Friends! Those new, Welcome!

Friday, August 27th, on a stage framed by two gigantic crystal chandeliers. Mirror the Branches

After the 90-minute musical performance, the magnificent space will transform into an Argentine Tango

We plan to play the CD live for you, like I did at Dazzle, except David's now got parts on almost every song

Thanks to Art Heffron, I've got a photo to prove it

I want to thank you guys so much for your generous support by pre order , then you could have all the ly

I've decided to print the classic poems that inspired me when I was writing the songs, instead of printing

Everyone Sang

Everyone suddenly burst out singing;
And I was filled with such delight
As prisoned birds must find in freedom,
Winging wildly across the white
Orchards and dark-green fields; on--on--and out of sight.

Everyone's voice was suddenly lifted;
And beauty came like the setting sun:
My heart was shaken with tears; and horror
Drifted away . . . O, but Everyone
Was a bird; and the song was wordless; the singing will never be done.

April 1919, Siegfried Sassoon (1886-1967)
