

THE GABRIELLE LOUISE

NEWSLETTER

Gratitude:

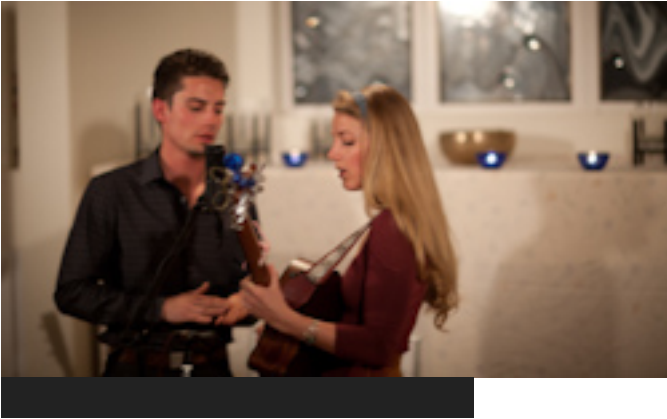

One of the highlights of my career was performing this April at Earth Day Omaha. After my set I stayed

New Videos:

click on images to watch

"Mirror" - Gabrielle Louise

This clip was shot live at Joe's Werne's Little Tree Acoustic House Concert Series in Lafayette, Colorado

"Y Nada Mas" - Silvio Rodriguez
On the way home from a show in

Cedar City this Spring we made a little stop in Moab - I'm not sure I've

"What We Ask For" - Gabrielle Louise
Video filmed and edited by Steven Swift.

Live at The Artiste Sanctuary in Cedar City, Utah. Studio versi

"Love Song for the Garbage Man" - Gabrielle Louise

In case you didn't see it on my regional emailer last March - this tune came about after a friend of mine r

[Redacted]

Farewell:

I had a lovely time closing out the last season at The Iron Horse Concert Hall in El Dorado, Kansas la

[Redacted]

Featured Show :

For full schedule please see website

May 17th: "Behind the Ogden"

I hope you can join Brodie Kinder and I for our May 17th show at Behind the Ogden House Concerts in

After this I head "across the pond" to play and travel in Europe, so come send me off, eh? I miss you already!

To confirm a seat and receive the address for this house concert, purchasing your advance "suggested

GET YOUR TICKETS HERE:

Check out the venue: behindtheogden.com

Photo with Eliza Gilkyson at Earth Day Omaha, by Eric Williams

Dear friends,

This time I won't write you a letter. I'd like to tell you a story instead. Covers to Diary

Thanks for tuning in.

With love,

Gabrielle Louise

How Lucky We Are:

Renee, 85, has lived on the upper west side for 25 years. Before that she lived on the upper east side for

Now she's sitting by the picture window in a coffee shop on 86th and Amsterdam, tearing her favorite article

Five minutes later she takes them out to read again, unfolding slowly, intentionally.

She spots me looking for a free table. "You're all dressed up for a concert!" She exclaims, taking note of

And so I do.

Renee puts down the paper and stares out the window blissfully - "People don't know how lucky we are,

Although you can only see a sliver of it through the canyon of apartment buildings, I have to notice that t

Renee's wearing a black velvet hat from the 1980s and oversized square glasses that magnify her eyes n

Just LOOK at those beautiful people in their beautiful clothing, and all those the bright yellow taxis, and

I took one look at New York City and never wanted to leave again.

I'm not sure what to tell her, except that The Big Apple has never welcomed me with such youthful enth

She gets up from our table and stealthily fills her purse with something from the fix-it-yourself-coffee-sta

"May I have one?"

Oh, yes, she says. "You get what you ask for, you know."

35 year old Renee in the black velvet hat and the square glasses squeezes my hand and gives me two.

"Enjoy them!" she exclaims, walking away to make friends of another stranger.

And so I do.

FRIDAY, MAY 17TH

*Gabrielle Louise
Brodie Kinder
opening the show*

BEHIND THE OGDEN

WWW.GABRIELLELOUISE.COM

[SUBSCRIPTIONS]